

FARM LABOR ENCAMPMENT!

SPONSORED BY: Students for Agricultural Labor, Herb Mills, Acting Chairman and AWOC (Agricultural Workers Organizing Committee, Norman Smith, Director)

PROGRAM: a group of students will leave Friday night, to participate in work projects Saturday and Sunday, and will return Sunday night for a discussion meeting at 2431 Dwight Way.

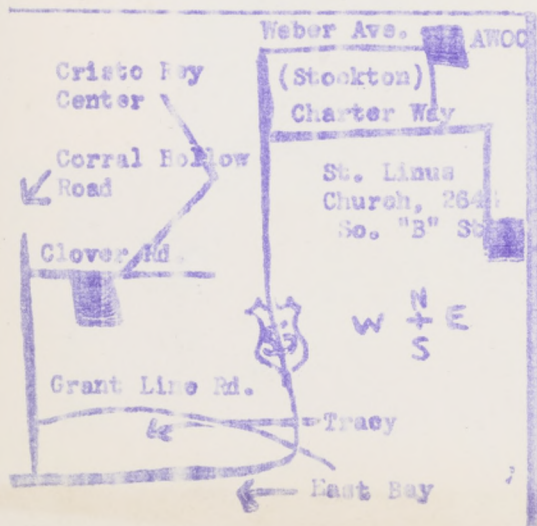

- PROJECTS:
- 1) construction and yard work on Cristo Rey Community Center (for Farm workers' children)
  - 2) attempt to get farm jobs at "shape-up" in Stockton (4:30 a.m.); a day working in the fields
  - 3) a tour of the general area and the "shoe-string" villages with AWOC staff

PURPOSE: to enable students to experience first hand the problems of agricultural workers and to better understand the severe deprivations experienced by a large proportion of American workers in an area of our economy which remains in an almost feudal structure; to discuss further possibilities of student participation with AWOC in its efforts to alleviate those problems; and to participate directly in a project of construction and maintenance of the Cristo Rey Community Center for the underfed children of farm workers --

DONATIONS: students bringing food donations to the Cristo Rey Center will be fed Saturday by the Center -- bring ONLY HIGH PROTEIN FOODS i.e. soy beans, whole wheat flour, powdered milk or eggs, etc.; any donations of clothes, toys, books, tools, furniture, etc. will be greatly appreciated; if you cannot make it this weekend but would like to donate, please call Pat Lynden at TH5-2998 or Barbara Juppe at TH 5-0766 -

EQUIPMENT: bring sleeping bags, work clothes (include changes), hat

TRANSPORTATION: cars will be leaving from the Stiles Hall parking lot, corner of Dana and Bancroft in Berkeley, Friday night, starting at 6pm. People interested in leaving later, or on Saturday or Sunday can consult the map for directions to the Cristo Rey Center or St. Linus church --

For further information call Pat Lynden at TH 5-2998

YPSL Sunday Discussion

2431 Dwight Way      August 21      8:00 p.m.

STUDENTS AND FARM LABOR: Herb Mills will lead a discussion of the encampment activities including plans for future student action

Hank Anderson
AWOC -
805 E. Weber Ave.
Stockton, Calif.